Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Britton, the county seat of Marshall County, is a progressive agriculture and business community that features a variety of manufacturing, retail, service businesses, a top notch school system, and a medical facility; and,

Whereas, In 1883, Colonel Isaac Britton visited the area and thought this location would be a splendid place for a town site. The scripting of the town began in 1883 and was completed and filed in 1884; and,

Whereas, Britton is well known as the home town of former Governor Frank Farrar, who served as the South Dakota Attorney General from 1963 to 1969, and as the Governor of South Dakota from 1969 to 1971; and,

Whereas, Britton continues to prosper with a community library, museum, sports complex, golf course, three city parks, and a number of lakes for fishing, boating, camping, and swimming. Britton has been labeled "The View is Great From Here" because of its prime location and generous people; and,

Whereas, Now, state government is going on the road to the people of Britton in a unique program called "Capital for a Day"; and,

Whereas, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a local forum whereby an exchange of ideas, information, and concerns among the governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups, and the general public can occur:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 3, 2012, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard
